

Steve Spinello is a Recruiting Manager for Robert Half Finance and Accounting. Robert Half Finance & Accounting, a division of Robert Half International, is the world's first and largest specialized financial recruitment service. Since 1948, they have helped companies hire highly skilled accounting and finance employees and assisted professionals in finding rewarding career opportunities. Robert Half International has a large network with over 360 offices worldwide.

Steve is a recent addition to the Robert Half International team, having joined earlier this year.

Prior to Robert Half Finance and Accounting, Steve worked as a financial advisor for a large multi-national brokerage house. Additionally, he served as the Corporate Recruiting & Benefits Manager for a national restaurant organization based in the Chattanooga area. Steve also worked for 8 years as a Senior Sales Professional for one of the world's largest pharmaceutical company.

His experience as a Recruiting Manager and sales background has afforded him the opportunity to successfully assist professionals in their career development plans and assist clients in finding the best talent for their organizational needs.
